This CLE will explore the different approaches and strategies one may employ in preparing for trial and dealing with the "trial surprises" that always arise. Preparing the "case theory", preparing witnesses, and preparing to make Charter arguments will be explored. It is hoped that Crown Counsel, Defence Counsel and a Judge of the Provincial Court will provide insight to those in attendance. This CLE is intended to assist those who are relatively new to the bar and others who may simply wish to hear the views of others.
