

OPPORTUNITY FOR INTERMEDIATE LAWYER

Pacific Law Group is a team of accomplished and experienced litigators who focus on exceptional client service in a very collegial, service-oriented, and dynamic environment. We handle many complex litigation files and frequently appear in both the S.C.B.C. and the B.C.C.A. Our lawyers have secured many leading precedents. We are situated in attractive high-tech premises that are within one block of the Law Courts in downtown Vancouver.

INTERMEDIATE LAWYER

We are seeking the addition of a lawyer with a minimum of 5 years of experience. Applicants should have superior skills in courtroom advocacy, legal analysis, research, and oral and written communication. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work with senior counsel in addition to having conduct of his or her own files. The majority of the files will be the defence of complex and challenging insurance claims, so personal injury or insurance law experience is an asset. This position is ideal for someone who can work independently, is a team player, and desires to excel in his or her legal career.

A superior compensation and benefits package is offered.
