

Elder Doris Pratt

I would like to be introduced as:

Elder Doris Pratt: B.T., B.Ed.,M.Ed. (Brandon University)
 Specialist Degree. (University of Arizona)
 Wipazoka Wakpa (Sioux Valley Dakota Nation)
 AMC-TRCM Council of Elders

Elder Doris Pratt, from Wikoza Wakpa, has dedicated her life to revitalizing and preserving the Dakota Language for the benefit of this vibrant and resurging culture, which she has shared with her three daughters and three sons, encouraging them always to take pride in the gifts of the Dakota language and culture.

Elder Pratt has her Masters in Education from Brandon University and holds an Educational Specialist Degree from the University of Arizona. Elder Pratt has developed a wide range of Dakota Language related materials for classroom and/or home education, including materials that range from the Primary School Level to Senior Advanced Studies in the Dakota Language.