GENERAL

Mr. Doyle has handled many complex insolvencies in his career, including many assessments and consulting engagements to assist corporations in difficult financial circumstances. At the request of major financial institutions and corporations, he has worked to provide companies with workable solutions to achieve profitability. This has included rationalization of operations, downsizing, outsourcing and in certain cases, outright elimination of unprofitable divisions. His clients include manufacturers, service organizations, not-for-profits, wholesalers, and retailers.

A Licensed Trustee in Bankruptcy, Mr. Doyle has carried out or supervised many viability assessments for Canadian Chartered Banks and/or other secured creditors and is recognized as an exceptional strategist and creative problem solver.

Doyle Salewski Inc. carries on a substantial insolvency practice throughout Ontario and Western Quebec from its offices in Ottawa, Gatineau and Toronto.

Brian Doyle is married and lives on Morris Island in the City of Ottawa, Ontario where the Mississippi River joins the Ottawa River. A tennis player, Mr. Doyle also flies his private aircraft located at Arnprior Airport. Among his several ratings, he is licensed as a commercial multi-engine IFR pilot.
