

Practice focus:

Neil Abramson is the Chair of the Litigation Department at the full service law firm, Torkin Manes LLP. and also chairs its Health Professionals Group. He acts for both plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of legal disputes from contract, to tort, from employment law to personal injury.

Neil has a large number of reported decisions to his credit. However, his practice is particularly focused on health law and he is one of the few lawyers certified by The Law Society of Upper Canada as a Specialist in Health Law.

Neil routinely represents physicians, dentists, pharmacists, veterinarians and other regulated health professionals. Neil regularly defends clients in hearings before the Discipline Committees of the various Colleges regulating health professionals in Ontario, and appears on appeal before all levels of court. Neil has also acted for many medical staff associations and for physicians in numerous hospital privilege disputes.

Neil is on the Canadian Dental Protective Association's list of approved counsel.

Teaching Engagements

Adjunct Faculty, University of Toronto, Faculty of Law (Trial Advocacy Course)

Former instructor, The Law Society of Upper Canada, Bar Admission Course (Public Law)

Former instructor, Faculty of Law, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario (Trial Advocacy Course)

Education

Called to the Ontario Bar, 1994

LLB, University of Toronto, 1992