Michael Greene practices with the Calgary Immigration Law firm, Sherritt Greene. He provides assistance to corporations wishing to relocate foreign workers to Canada and the United States and assists applicants in all categories of immigration to Canada and in all aspects of immigration and citizenship litigation.

Michael was born and raised in Alberta. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Manitoba in 1979 and graduated from the Faculty of Law at the University of Calgary in 1982. He articulated with the Alberta Court of Appeal and completed his articles with a large Calgary firm. He joined with Michael Sherritt to form Sherritt Greene in 1998. Sherritt Greene practices immigration law exclusively.

Michael is active in the Canadian Bar Association, both provincially and nationally. He served as the National Chair of the Canadian Bar Association's Citizenship & Immigration Section in 2000-2001. He has served 5 terms as the Chairman of Southern Alberta Immigration Lawyers Section. He has frequently been involved in national consultations with Federal Ministers and with the Immigration Department regarding legislative and policy initiatives. He has appeared before committees of the Senate and the House of Commons on immigration matters. Michael currently instructs the Immigration Law course at the University Of Calgary Faculty Of Law. He has chaired national and provincial immigration law seminars and has presented numerous seminars for the Legal Education Society of Alberta, the Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia, the Law Society of Upper Canada, the Ontario Bar Association and the National Continuing Legal Education division of the CBA. He has frequently given lectures and presentations to members of the Bar, human resource professionals, the general public and various community groups. Michael received the 1995 Suzanne Mah Award from the Alberta Human Rights Commission for “exemplary human rights, principles and ideals in the practice of law”. In 2001 he received the Louis St. Laurent Award of Excellence from the Canadian Bar Association for “distinguished or exceptional service to the objectives and goals of the CBA”.
